Since 2016, the City has commissioned the Community Satisfaction Survey to better understand community priorities. Insights drawn from the survey and other outreach activities help City leaders plan for the future of Salem. Survey results are one input into the City Council's annual work plan – the City Council Policy Agenda – which provides direction to the organization and informs the City's budget.

One of the most recognized logos around, the recycling symbol, is in line for a major revamp.

California recently became the first state to restrict the use of the widely known "chasing arrows" symbol. State lawmakers last week passed a bill that criminalizes putting the symbol on any item that isn't commonly recyclable.
