
Last week, Dave MacMillan made a point of thanking many people who have contributed to ICL over the past year. It is also important that we thank Dave for all of his work behind the scenes. He completes the newsletters each week, regularly sends out additional announcements and handles the website along with spreadsheets that track our presenters and programs – past and present. He’s available to help anyone with tech issues, too. Thank you, Dave!

Pre-Covid, some ICL members enjoyed meeting at Goudy on Tuesdays for lunch. Back then, Goudy would stay open all summer for the Japanese students who remained on campus and all the sports, music, and other school camps. Covid changed all that, and last year Goudy wasn’t open to the public. So we met at Taproot at the Mill
