

Article One. Name

The name of this organization shall be Willamette University Student Animal Legal Defense Fund hereinafter referred to as Willamette University SALDF.

Article Two. Purpose

The Willamette University SALDF is dedicated to providing a forum for education, advocacy, and scholarships aimed at protecting the lives and advancing the interests of animals through the legal system, and raising the profile of the field of animal law.

The Willamette University SALDF is dedicated to the goals of educating the law school and surrounding community about forms of institutionalized animal abuse, and engaging in projects that combat that abuse. The Willamette University SALDF is equally dedicated to protecting the lives and advancing the interests of animals through the legal system. The activities of Willamette University SALDF shall include, but no limited to: hosting speakers, debates, and conferences on current issues in animal rights and animal welfare law; carrying out research agreeing to, dissenting to, or abstaining from every action there decided. A necessary quorum for all decisions shall be at least 51% of all members present at the meeting and must include at least one officer.

1. President,

Special meetings of Willamette University SALDF may be called by any number of members, who shall inform the President, as well as, the entire membership at least one week prior to the date of the proposed meeting.

Article Seven. Affiliation with the Animal Legal Defense Fund.

Activities of the Willamette University SALDF shall at all times be consistent with the mission
No litigation will be initiated, endorsed, or supported in the name of the Willamette University SALDF, without prior approval of ALDF. All public policy positions taken by the Willamette University SALDF shall be consistent with the mission of the ALDF:

written consent.

Article Eight. Amendments.

Any member shall be entitled to propose amendments. Proposed amendments shall be consistent with these By-Laws, and shall be communicated to the ALDF and all current SALDF officers, who shall schedule a meeting for the purpose of approving these amendments. If the date of submission of these amendments is near the date of a regular or special business meeting, then no additional meeting need be scheduled. A two-thirds majority of all chapter members must vote on any amendments to this constitution.